

We Rise | Volunteer Opportunities

Mentors

Mentors are willing to share/teach their knowledge and or expertise in the area of student's gift or interest.

- Share life experiences for the development of character and perseverance in our children and grow their abilities.
- Mentors guide students to/from assigned area for After school program.

Tutors

Tutors select math or reading. Listen and monitor the children's reading, assisting as needed. Volunteers should have a basic understanding of middle-school math skills.

Practice sight words, spelling, writing and grammar
Report on the students progress and make recommendations for advancement.

Work with 1-3 students at a time to support coursework completion or test prep.

Story Tellers

Senior Citizens sharing life stories to bridge the generational gap and give our children a sense of pride in themselves and our community.

- Present interesting life experiences in an engaging way.

Advocates use the voice of social activism to petition school districts against student suspension and expulsion.

- Attend school board meetings. (dependent)
- Provide thought leadership on state and national congressional policy that may impact our students.

Education Advocates

School Liaison

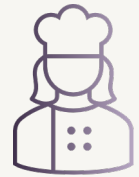

School Liaison works to make the children's schools more accessible by fostering positive relationships between teachers and parents.

- Scheduling/facilitating off sight parent teacher conferences
- Securing permission for students to bring textbooks home
- Coordinating ways for students to participate in their school's extracurricular activities.
